

PASMA - Towers for Users Course

PASMA 'Standard' course, now renamed the 'Towers for Users' course. This one day course is the association's flagship course, attracting in excess of 50,000 delegates a year. Aimed at personnel who will be responsible for assembling, dismantling, moving and inspecting mobile access towers.

Delegates attending this course receive a course content booklet and PASMA Code of Practice together with a PASMA certificate and photocard for the relevant level that is valid for 5 years.

